Unit Aptitudes
Flickerjump	In your Movement phase, when this unit makes a Normal move, it can make a flickerjump. If it does, until the end of the phase, its Move characteristic is changed to 24" but you must roll one D6 after this unit ends that move: on a 1, this unit suffers 1 mortal wound. This unit is not eligible to declare a charge in the same turn in which it makes a flickerjump.
Spider's Lair	Once per battle, at the end of your Movement phase, if this unit is wholly within an Area Terrain feature and contains a Warp Spider Exarch model, you can select for that terrain feature to be webbed. If you do so, until the end of Battle: - Enemy units treat that terrain feature as if it had the Dangerous Ground terrain trait. - Each time an enemy unit ends any type of move within that terrain feature, roll one D6: on a 2+, that enemy unit suffers D3 mortal wounds.
